

Rye Sustainability Committee
Minutes

Monday, June 3, 2019
City Hall, Mayor's Conference Room, 1st Floor

Meeting began-9:07am

In attendance:

Melissa Grieco, Gretchen Crowley, Jenny Hirsh, Patti Capparelli Amy Kesavan, Sara Goddard, Linda Mackay

Melissa: new business:

: meeting at Square House

: library wants to do a speaker series

FSR:

weekend hours : farmers market Sunday Patti & Jenny, Saturday morning hours good news

6 drops offs at farmers market, 2 sign up, one just wants drop offs,(74 on waitlist)

Email to all CC members, need eblast, July 17 meeting (need to confirm), need emails by end of June

Roll it over to end of year or 6 months: need goal, nail down maximum curbside Ryan can accommodate

357 participants

Milton school fair, 9-3pm, Patti and Linda

Pollinator pathways (Amy, Melissa)

Melissa; map, fill in properties (take the pledge), at RCDS students workshop planted plants to take home, replicate at RNC Spring 2020, Dairen is well on the way with a map at their nature center, Amy will host an edible garden workshop in the Fall/library

Thanks to Sara; website, social media, mailchimp, newsletter: Melissa and Gretchen taking over

Fireman's circle plantings native working with little garden club of Rye, getting a seat at the table, Healthy yard sign there

Jenny posted her article on Rye Moms FB, new people responding, keep momentum plan a community event around this issue, Sarah Evans; children's health issues from pesticides Mount Sini, winter event at the library evening

Spraying Rye Rec fields, why? Check with Sara

Meeting Ended: 10:26am